55	(D) Temporary operators' licenses.
56	(1) Temporary operators' licenses. The village shall issue temporary operators' licenses
57	under the terms of this chapter except that:
58	(a) (1) The license may be issued only to operators employed by or donating their
59	services to nonprofit organizations;
60	(b) (2) No person may hold more than one temporary operator's license per year;
61	(c) (3) The license is valid for any period from one day to 14 days, or the license may
62	be issued for the purpose of up to 14 separate recurring events, and the period for
63	which it is valid shall be stated on the license; and
64	(d) (4) The fees for a temporary operator's license is provided in §36.04. It shall be non-
65	refundable and shall not apply toward any other operator's license under this
66	section.
67	(2) The procedure for licenses issued in accordance with this section for temporary
68	operators' licenses shall be as follows: Upon application therefore the Village Clerk
69	shall submit such application to the Village Board. In such situations where the
70	temporary operator's license application is filed and time does not permit review by the
71 72	Village Board, the Village Clerk shall have the authority to grant or deny the issuance of such license; provided, however, that in such case the license fee shall be $25,
72	which shall be non-refundable and shall not apply toward another operator's license
73 74	under this section.
75
76	(E) Provisional operators' licenses. Provisional operators' licenses shall be issued according
77	to the following:
78	(1) The Village Clerk is authorized to issue a provisional operator's license to a person
79	who has submitted an initial application for an operator's license under §112.05,
80	provided that, based on the information contained in the application, the person meets
81	the qualifications in §112.14 for issuance of licenses related to alcohol beverages, and
82	provided further that the person has not previously been denied an operator's license
83	by the village.
84	(2) The fee for provisional operators' licenses shall be as provided in §36.04 which shall
85	be non-refundable and shall not apply towards any other operator's license under this
86	section.
87	(3) A provisional operator's license shall expire 60 days after its issuance or a license
88	under 12.05 of this section is issued to the holder, whichever is sooner.
89	(4) The Village Clerk may revoke a provisional operator's license if it is discovered that the
90 01	holder of the license made a false statement on the application.
