§ 19-3203. Authorization of Exemption, Abatement or Credits from Certain Taxes.

(a) Effective as of January 1, 1999, and continuing through and including December 31, 2010, with respect to real property or business activity, as applicable, attributable to the Keystone Opportunity Zone; (b) effective as of January 1, 2001, and continuing through and including December 31, 2013, with respect to real property or business activity, as applicable, attributable to the Keystone Opportunity Expansion Zone; (c) with respect to real property or business activity, as applicable, attributable to each separate Philadelphia Keystone Opportunity Improvement Subzone, effective upon designation by DCED of such subzone (anticipated on or about October 1, 2003) and continuing for a period of fifteen (15) years from the date of such designation, the following provisions shall apply; [and] (d) with respect to real property or business activity, as applicable, attributable to the Philadelphia Economic Development District, effective upon designation by DCED of such District (anticipated some time in the summer of 2005) and continuing through and including December 31, 2018; and (e) with respect to real property or business activity, as applicable, attributable to the Philadelphia Strategic Development Area effective as of January 1, 2008 and continuing through and including December 31, 2022:

(1) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 19-3205 and elsewhere in this Chapter, all real estate taxes imposed under Chapter 19-1300 or authorized under Section 19-1801, on real property located in the Zone, are abated; provided that, with respect to real property located in the Economic Development District, real estate taxes authorized under Section 19-1801 shall not be abated.

(2) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 19-3206 and elsewhere in this Chapter, a person or business subject to realty use and occupancy tax authorized under Section 19-1806 with respect to real property located in the Zone other than real property located in the Economic Development District may claim a one hundred percent (100%) exemption from such tax.

(3) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 19-3207 and elsewhere in this Chapter, a qualified business may claim a credit against the Business Privilege Tax imposed under Chapter 19-2600 to the extent of the tax liability attributable to business activity conducted directly by the taxpayer within the Zone.

(4) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 19-3208 and elsewhere in this Chapter, a taxpayer, whether or not a resident, may claim a credit against the Net Profits Tax imposed under Chapters 19-1500 and 19-2800, to the extent of the tax liability attributable to net profits from the operation of a qualified business within the Zone other than within the Economic Development District.

(5) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 19-3209 and elsewhere in this Chapter, a qualified business shall be exempt from sales or use tax imposed under Section 19-2701(1) or 19-2701(2) on the purchase price of sales at retail of services or tangible personal property, except motor vehicles, for the exclusive use, consumption and utilization of the tangible personal property or service, by the qualified business at its facility located within the Zone.

(6) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 19-3210 and elsewhere in this Chapter, compensation earned by a resident of the Zone, other than a resident of the Economic Development District, is exempt from Wage Tax imposed under Chapters 19-1500 and 19-2800.

§ 19-3204. Conditions for Exemptions, Abatements and Credits.

(1) Qualifications.

(a) Other than in the Philadelphia Strategic Development Area: In order to qualify each year for a tax exemption, abatement or credit under this Chapter, a business shall own or lease real property in the Zone from which the business actively conducts a trade, profession or business. The qualified business shall receive certification from DCED that the business is located, and is in the active conduct of a trade, profession or business, within the Zone. The business shall obtain annual renewal of the certification from DCED to continue to qualify under this Section. A copy of the certification shall accompany the filing of any return or other required application with the City in order for the qualified business to obtain any tax exemption, abatement or credit provided under this Chapter.

(b) In the Philadelphia Strategic Development Area: In order to qualify for tax exemptions, deductions, abatements or credits under this article, a business must own or lease real property in a strategic development area on which the business actively conducts a trade, profession or business involving energy, bioscience or manufacturing, or a related activity, and meet one of the following criteria:

(.1) Create or maintain a minimum of 500 jobs within the first three years of full operation within the strategic development area.

(.2) Invest a minimum of $ 45,000,000 in capital investment in the property located in the strategic development area within the first three years of full operation.

(2) Approval by DCED. Any taxpayer claiming an exemption, abatement or credit under this Chapter must, by December 31 of each year for which the exemption, abatement or credit is claimed, apply for and receive approval from DCED of eligibility for the benefit, as set forth in Sections 906 and 907 of the Act, as amended, or Section

906 of the EDD Act, or Section 2956-C and 2957-C of the SDA Act, as applicable. In the Philadelphia Strategic Development Area, a copy of the approval shall accompany the filing of any return or other required application with the City in order for the qualified business to obtain any tax exemption, abatement or credit provided under this Chapter.

(3) Relocation.

(a) Any business that relocates into the Zone, other than into the Economic Development District or into the Philadelphia Strategic Development Area, from outside the Zone shall not receive any of the exemptions, abatements or credits set forth in this Chapter unless that business either:

* * *

§ 19-3205. Conditions for Real Estate Tax Exemption.

(1) A resident of real property located in the Zone, other than in the Economic Development District and Strategic Development Area, shall not be entitled to an abatement of real estate taxes on such property unless such resident invests in improvements to the real property an amount equal to no less than twenty-five percent (25%) of all real property taxes which would have been due if the real property was not located in the Zone.

(2) A nonresident owner of real property located in the Zone, other than in the Economic Development District and Strategic Development Area, who leases such property directly or indirectly to a person for residential use shall not be entitled to an abatement of real estate taxes on such property unless such nonresident owner invests in improvements to the real property no less than fifty percent (50%) of all real property taxes which would have been due if the real property was not located in the Zone.

* * *

§ 19-3210. Conditions for Wage Tax Exemption.

(1) Residency. In order to qualify each year for an exemption from wage tax under this Chapter, a person shall be domiciled and shall reside in the Zone for a period of 184 consecutive days during each taxable year, which may begin on the date of designation of the Zone by DCED or on the date the person first resides within the Zone.

(2) [Notwithstanding] Except as provided in subsection (3) below, and notwithstanding any exemption provided by this Chapter, the employer of any person claiming such exemption shall remain subject to Sections 19-1504 and 19-2806 relating to tax withholding. Any taxpayer claiming an exemption from wage tax pursuant to this Chapter may file a claim for refund with the Department of Revenue pursuant to Section 19-1703.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) above, an employer shall not be subject to the provisions of Sections 19-1504 and 19-2806, relating to tax withholding, with respect to any employee who is resident of the Philadelphia Strategic Development Area, so long as the employee has furnished to his or her employer information, as prescribed by the Department, necessary for the employer to withhold the correct amount of tax, including any changes to such information within 20 days after the change, unless the employer reasonably and in good faith believes such information to be inaccurate. Within 20 days after an employer receives any information from an employee requesting exemption from withholding, the employer shall forward a copy of such information to the Department. The information shall not be given retroactive effect for withholding purposes.

§ 19-3213. Recapture.

(1) General rule. If any qualified business located within the Zone has received an exemption, abatement or credit under this Chapter and subsequently relocates outside of the Zone within five years, that business shall refund to the City or School District, as applicable, the following (for purposes of this subsection, the Zone shall not include the Economic Development District or the Strategic Development Area):

* * *

§ 19-3215. Code Compliance.

(1) General rule. A person or qualified business shall be precluded from claiming any exemption, abatement or credit provided for in this Chapter with respect to any real property in the Zone (other than in the Economic Development District or Strategic Development Area) if that person or qualified business owns real property in the Zone (other than in the Economic Development District or Strategic Development Area); or with respect to any real property in the Economic Development District if that person or qualified business owns real property in the Economic Development District; or with respect to any real property in the Strategic Development Area if that person owns real property in the Strategic Development Area; if the real property is not in compliance with all applicable State and local zoning, building and housing laws, ordinances or codes and the real property owner has not filed an affidavit with the Department attesting to compliance for that calendar year before December 31 with all applicable State and local
