standing, placing or maintaining any all-terrain vehicle, shall be forfeiture of the vehicle; provided that, if the value of the vehicle, in its current condition, is in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000), or if the defendant does not own the vehicle and the owner did not know and could not reasonably have known that the vehicle would be used in violation of this Section, a civil penalty of two thousand dollars ($2,000) shall be imposed.

(4) Enforcement.

(a) Notices of violation shall be issued by police officers or any other person authorized to enforce ordinances, pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 10-1606 of this Code. (.1) Any person to whom a ticket is issued may, within eight (8) days of receipt, agree to forfeit the vehicle in lieu of contesting the violation and in lieu of any other fines or penalties.

(.2) An order by default may be vacated pursuant to Section 10-1608(4) only within sixty days after its entry.

(b) Seizure. In addition to issuance of a notice of violation, whenever a police officer has probable cause to believe a vehicle has been used or is being used in violation of this Section, the officer may seize the vehicle, whereupon the Police Department shall comply, as nearly as practicable, with the provisions of § 12-2405(2)-(5) (“Removal or Immobilization of Parked Vehicles; Notice.”), except that no vehicle shall be returned to the owner other than pursuant to this Section 12-1133. The Police Department shall store the vehicle until a final adjudication of the offense, at which time:

(.1) If forfeiture is not awarded, the Police Department shall return the vehicle to the owner upon payment of all applicable fines, penalties and fees and compliance with all applicable laws relating to the vehicle.

(.2) If forfeiture is awarded, the Police Department shall dispose of the vehicle in an appropriate manner, which may include destruction of the vehicle or such other manner of disposition that, in the judgment of the Department, reduces, to the greatest extent practicable, the opportunities for the vehicle to be used in any manner that violates the provisions of this Section or the Vehicle Code.
