Sec. 2B-6. Enforcement proceedings; citations.

The following requirements shall govern all administrative enforcement proceedings:

(a) Enforcement proceedings shall be initiated by the issuance of a citation by a Code Enforcement Officer.

(b) When a Code Enforcement Officer, based upon personal observation or investigation, has reasonable cause to believe that a person has committed a violation of an ordinance, the officer is authorized to issue a citation by:

- (1) Personal service to the alleged violator;
- (2) Leaving a copy of the citation with any person eighteen (18) years of age or older who is on the premises, if the alleged violator is not on the premises at the time the citation is issued; or
- (3) Posting a copy of the citation in a conspicuous place on the premises and mailing a copy of the citation by regular first-class mail of the United States Postal Service to the owner of record of the property if no one is on the premises at the time the citation is issued.

A Code Enforcement Officer may, in lieu of immediately issuing a citation, give notice that a violation shall be remedied within a specified period of time if authorized by ordinance for a violation of that nature. If the person to whom the notice is given fails or refuses to remedy the violation within the time specified, the code enforcement officer is authorized to issue a citation. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the government from taking immediate action if necessary as further provided in section 2B-10 or the applicable ordinance.

(c) The citation issued by the Code Enforcement Officer shall be in a form prescribed by the urban county government and shall contain, in addition to any other information required by ordinance or rule of the Board:

- (1) The date and time of issuance;
- (2) The name and address of the person to whom the citation is issued;
- (3) The date and time the offense was committed;
- (4) The facts constituting the offense;
- (5) The section of the code or the number of the ordinance violated;
- (6) The name of the Code Enforcement Officer;
- (7) The civil fine that will be imposed for the violation if the person does not contest the citation (if the ordinance establishing the fine provides for such an option);
- (8) The maximum civil fine that may be imposed if the person elects to contest the citation;
- (9) The procedure for the person to follow in order to pay the civil fine or to contest the citation; and
- (10) A statement that if the person fails to pay the civil fine set forth in the citation or contest the citation, within the time allowed, the person shall be deemed to have waived the right to an administrative hearing to contest the citation and that the determination that a violation was committed shall be final and the person shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to appeal.

(d) After issuing a citation to an alleged violator, the Code Enforcement Officer shall notify the Code Enforcement Board by delivering the citation to the administrative official designated by ordinance or by the Board.

(e) When a citation is issued, the person to whom the citation is issued shall respond to the citation within seven (7) days of the date the citation is issued by either paying the civil fine set forth in the citation or requesting, in writing, an administrative hearing to contest the citation. If the person fails to respond to the citation within seven (7) days, the person shall be deemed to have waived the right to a hearing to contest the citation and the determination that a violation was committed shall be considered final. In this event, the citation, as issued, shall be deemed a Final Order determining that a violation was committed and imposing the civil fine as set forth in the citation, and the person shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to an appeal.

Section 7 - That Section 2B-6 of the Code of Ordinances be and hereby is renumbered to Section 2B-7 of the Code, and is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2B-7. Hearings and procedure.

(a) When an administrative hearing is requested a hearing shall be scheduled. Not less than seven (7) days before the date set for the hearing, the person who requested the hearing will be notified in writing of the date, time, and place of the hearing. The notice may be given by regular first-class mail; certified mail, return receipt requested; by personal delivery; or by leaving the notice at the person's usual place of residence with any individual residing therein who is eighteen (18) years of age or older and who is informed of the contents of the notice. Any person requesting a hearing who fails to appear at the time and place set for the hearing shall be deemed to have waived the right to a hearing to contest the citation and the determination that a violation was committed shall be final. In this event, the citation, as issued, shall be deemed a Final Order determining that a violation was committed and imposing the civil fine set forth in the citation, and the person shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to an appeal. Notice of the Final Order shall be provided to the cited violator in the manner set forth in paragraph (i), below.

(b) Any party to an administrative hearing may participate in person or may be represented by counsel. Each case that is the subject of a hearing may be presented by an attorney selected by the urban county government or by a member of the administrative staff of the government. An attorney may either be counsel to the Code Enforcement Board and the assigned hearing officer or may represent the urban county government by presenting cases at the hearing, but in no case shall an attorney serve in both capacities.

(c) A hearing officer may administer oaths to witnesses prior to their testimony and subpoena alleged violators, witnesses, and evidence to the hearing to which the officer is assigned.

(d) All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded. The hearing officer shall take testimony from the Code Enforcement Officer, the alleged offender, and any witnesses to the alleged violation offered by the Code Enforcement Officer or the alleged offender. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but fundamental due process shall be observed and shall govern the proceedings. Any person, upon request, may receive a copy of the recording, provided, however, that the party making the request shall be responsible for the cost of any transcript or copy.

(e) Any part of the evidence may be received in written form if doing so will expedite the hearing without substantial prejudice to the interests of any party, or if such practice is authorized by statute. Any party shall have the right, upon reasonable request, to inspect the documentary or tangible evidence relating to an administrative hearing, either in person or through counsel. Copies of documentary evidence may be obtained by parties upon the payment of a fee, except where disclosure is protected by state or federal law.

(f) Objections to evidentiary offers may be made by any party and shall be noted in the record.

(g) The hearing officer may take official notice of any matter of which a court of the Commonwealth of Kentucky may take such notice.

(h) Following a hearing, the hearing officer shall make written findings of facts and conclusions of law, and enter a Final Order which includes the date the order was issued. When a hearing officer determines that no violation was committed, an order dismissing the citation shall be entered. When a hearing officer determines that a violation has been committed, an order shall be issued upholding the citation and the hearing officer may order the offender to pay a civil fine in an amount up to the maximum authorized by ordinance, or may order the offender to remedy a continuing violation within a specified time to avoid the imposition of a fine, or both.

(i) Within twenty-four (24) hours of entry, these findings, conclusions, and Final Order shall be forwarded to the violator(s), and to the Board. The findings, conclusions, and order may be delivered to the violator(s) at the conclusion of the hearing or by regular first-class mail; certified mail, return receipt requested; personal delivery; or by leaving the documents at the person's usual place of residence with any individual residing therein who is eighteen (18) years of age or older and who is informed of the contents of the delivery.

(j) A violator(s) may appeal a Final Order issued as a result of a hearing directly to Fayette District Court, in accordance with section 2B-8.

(k) The chief administrative officer shall designate a staff person to serve as secretary to each Board. The secretary shall file a detailed record of all proceedings in the office of the appropriate commissioner or director.

Section 8 - That Section 2B-7 of the Code of Ordinances be and hereby is renumbered to Section 2B-8 of the Code, and is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2B-8. Appeals.

(a) An appeal from any Final Order issued by a hearing officer may be made to the Fayette District Court within thirty (30) days of the date the order is issued. The appeal shall be initiated by the filing of a complaint and a copy of the Final Order in the same manner as any civil action under the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) A judgment of the District Court may be appealed to the Circuit Court in accordance with the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) If no appeal from a Final Order issued by a hearing officer is filed within the time period set forth in this section, the order shall be deemed final for all purposes.

(d) Pursuant to state law and this chapter, the failure to timely utilize the administrative hearing process to challenge a citation or to appear at the administrative hearing shall result in a Final Order which is not appealable.

Section 9 - That Section 2B-8 of the Code of Ordinances be and hereby is renumbered to Section 2B-9 of the Code, and is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2B-9. Liens; personal liability; releases; notifications.

(a) The urban county government shall possess a lien on property owned by the person found by a Final Order, or by a final judgment of the court, to have committed a violation of a local government ordinance for all civil fines assessed for the violation and for all charges and fees incurred by the government in connection with the enforcement of the ordinance including abatement costs. An affidavit of the Code Enforcement Officer shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount of the lien and the regularity of the proceedings pursuant to KRS 65.8801 to KRS 65.8839. The lien shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk. The lien shall be notice to all persons from the time of its recording and shall bear interest until paid. The lien shall take precedence over all other subsequent liens, except state, county, school board, and city taxes unless otherwise provided by law, and may be enforced by judicial proceedings.

(b) In addition to the remedy prescribed in subsection (a) of this section, the person found to have committed the violation shall be personally responsible for the amount of the lien, including all civil fines associated for the violation and for all charges, fees, and abatement costs incurred by the local government in connection with the enforcement of the ordinance. The urban county government may bring a civil action against the person and shall have the same remedies as provided for the recovery of a debt.

(c) Pursuant to state law, nothing in this section shall otherwise affect the rights or obligation between the owner of the property and those persons who claim a security interest in the property.

(d) The mayor is authorized and directed to execute a release of the lien:

- (1) Upon payment in full of all civil fines, charges and fees evidenced by the lien, together with applicable interest,
- (2) Upon conclusion of court proceedings resulting in the sale of the property regardless of whether any part of the liens, charges and fees were paid from the proceeds of the sale, or
- (3) Upon a determination made in conjunction with the commissioner of law and the appropriate commissioner or director that the cost of collection of the lien would be greater than the lien itself, or when intervening in existing litigation is not cost effective, or when the lien would not be enforceable as a matter of law.

(e) The commissioner of law is hereby authorized to make the determination that liens shall not be filed if the cost of collection of the lien would be greater than the lien itself, or when intervening in existing litigation is not cost effective, or when the lien would not be enforceable as a matter of law.

(f) The commissioner of law is hereby authorized to institute proceedings, in the name of the urban county government, in any court having jurisdiction over such matter, to enforce any liability or lien arising under a civil enforcement action taken pursuant to this chapter of the code.

(g) The urban county government shall implement a system for notification to lienholders that meets the minimum requirements of KRS 65.8836 and that permits remedial action by lienholders as required by the statute. The personnel responsible for administering this section shall be as directed by the chief administrative officer.

(3) If after an appeal the assigned hearing officer finds that the petitioner has failed to establish that permit or license reinstatement and renewed use of the system will not result in excessive false alarms and will not constitute a public nuisance, the suspension or revocation shall remain in effect. If, after the initial reinstatement conference or after an appeal, the petitioner has established through proof of renewed user training, system maintenance, modification or repair that permit or license reinstatement and use of the system will not result in excessive false alarms and will not constitute a public nuisance, the order of suspension or revocation shall be dissolved upon submission of a new permit application and payment of a nonrefundable reinstatement fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00).

(c) When there is reason to believe that the violation of chapter 16 presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, and welfare, or if in the absence of immediate action, the effects of the continuation of the violation would be irreparable, irreversible, or otherwise detrimental to the environment, the urban county government may abate the conditions without prior notice. In such cases the government may, in addition to any civil fine imposed on the violator, charge the responsible person with an administrative fee of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) and with the costs for any expense, loss or damage incurred by the urban county government by reason of such violation. Said person shall also be liable for the costs of repairing or restoring any sanitary sewer, stormwater control device, or other infrastructure or stream that is damaged, obstructed or impaired by such violation to its pre-existing condition. The urban county government may file a lien for the costs of such abatement in accordance with section 2B-9 of the code and this article. Citations, if issued, shall not preclude the government from abating the conditions and billing the responsible person, persons, or entities for the cost of abatement.

(f) The urban county government may file a lien for the cost of such abatement under subsections (c) and (d) in accordance with section 2B-9 of the code and this article.

(g) Pursuant to 401 KAR 5:057 Section 6, relating to pretreatment program requirements, the names of all industrial dischargers that significantly violated applicable pretreatment standards in the previous twelve (12) months will be published in the largest local daily newspaper at least annually.

(d) Alternative civil enforcement. Except as otherwise specified herein, the provisions of chapter 2B of the code of ordinances shall apply to all civil enforcement actions. As an alternative remedy to the criminal penalties contained in this section, any person who violates any provision of sections 17-2 through 17-4, or subsection 6-8(k) of the Land Subdivision Regulations of the Zoning Ordinance, may be assessed civil fines of not less than fifty dollars

($50.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), pursuant to the civil fine guidelines in section 17-4.1.

Section 22 - That Section 17-4.1 of the Code of Ordinances be and hereby is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17-4.1. - Notice of violation; fines.

(a) Notice of violation. Prior to issuing the initial civil citation for any violation, the director, enhanced 911 or his representative, who shall be referred to hereinafter as the "code enforcement officer", may first issue a written notice of violation. The notice of violation shall provide the following:

- (1) The date and time of issuance;
- (2) The name and address of the person to whom the notice of violation is issued;
- (3) The date and time the offense was committed;
- (4) The facts constituting the offense;
- (5) The section of the code of ordinances or zoning ordinance violated;
- (6) The name of the code enforcement officer issuing the notice of violation;
- (7) The period of time within which the violation must be corrected in order to avoid the issuance of a citation; and
- (8) A statement to the effect that the failure to abate or correct the violation may result in the issuance of a citation and civil fine in the amounts set forth in this section.

(b) The provisions of chapter 2B of the code shall apply to the issuance of all civil citations and the administrative hearing process.

(c) Notices of violation shall be served upon the person in violation, which in most instances shall be the owner of the property where the violation(s) exists. The following methods of service are deemed to be sufficient: any method of personal service recognized under Kentucky law and/or the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedures; mailing the notice via regular U.S. mail to the last known address of that person as it appears on the current tax assessment roll; delivery of the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested; or in the event that the address of the person in violation cannot readily be ascertained from the tax rolls in the exercise of reasonable diligence, publication in a newspaper of general circulation for two (2) consecutive days upon the code enforcement officer making an affidavit to that effect. If notice is made by publication, a copy of such notice shall also be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises affected by the notice. All costs incurred in serving a person are recoverable. Any person may designate, in writing on a form provided by and filed with the division of enhanced 911, the name and address to where any notice or citations can be provided, and service to said name and address shall be sufficient. However, such designation does not shift or change the responsibility for compliance with the provisions of sections 17-2 to 17-4 to the designee, instead of the designating person. All citations shall be served in the manner specified in section 2B-6 of the code.

(d) Civil fines assessed for violations of sections 17-2 through 17-4 or subsection 6-8(k) of the Land Subdivision Regulations of the Zoning Ordinance shall be based on the number of citations issued within a twelve-month period as follows:

- (5) All fines may also include all charges and fees incurred by the government in connection with enforcement, including but not limited to an administrative fee of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) and the costs of service, publication, and recording.
