

An Ordinance of the County of Rock Island Amending Chapter 110: Alcoholic Beverages Section 110.057

Class A License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor for on premises consumption in an establishment wherein a portion of the premises is reserved for dancing or other entertainment of patrons or wherein any such dancing or entertainment is contemplated or customarily provided. Any establishment eligible for a Class AA license shall not be eligible for a Class A license

Class AA License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor for on premises consumption operated as a restaurant or other place for the service of food and operated in connection with a hotel or motel, provided that said hotel or motel consists of fifty (50) or more rental units and provided that a portion of the premises may or may not be reserved for dancing or other entertainment.

Class AAA License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of liquor for on premises consumption operated as a restaurant or night club in which food is served as a major portion of the business and in which live entertainment is presented.

Class AAA-I License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor to be consumed at events outside of establishments possessing any Rock Island County liquor license except Class D. The alcoholic beverage shall be consumed only within a beer garden clearly designated by rope, fence, or another barrier. This license shall be valid only for the event for which the fee is paid.

Class B License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor for consumption on premises in an establishment wherein no portion of the premises is reserved for dancing or other entertainment and wherein no dancing or other entertainment is contemplated or permitted. Any establishment eligible for a Class AA License shall not be eligible for a Class B license.

Class C License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor in an establishment operated by a club for consumption on the premises by members of the club and their guests.

Class D License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor for consumption on premises in a building, temporary structure, or open area which is being used in connection with an organized picnic, outing, or entertainment event. A Class D license shall have a duration not to exceed 24 hours and shall be subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2-25-1 of the Rock Island County Liquor Control Ordinance.

Class E License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor in an establishment wherein sales are made of the unbroken or original package, commonly called "package stores," and wherein no facilities are maintained for the consumption of alcoholic liquor by patrons and where no such consumption is contemplated or permitted on the premises.

Class E-E License: Shall authorize the licensee to sell to the general public, alcoholic liquor in original packages only for the consumption off the premises where sold and shall authorize beer and wine, in conjunction with video gaming, be sold for consumption on the specified premises. Class E-E license holders are allowed to apply for a video gaming license through the state and county if applicable. A Class E-E license is exclusive to gas stations/convenience that are not considered a licensed truck stop. The operation of video gaming terminals shall be ancillary to the operation of the premises as a gas station or convenience store. Convenience stores shall be defined as a small sized mercantile store or shop that offers a limited range of grocery and other items that people are likely to need or want as a matter of a convenient supplement to larger stores. The service of beer and wine is limited to one drink per hour per video gaming customer or patron of the premises, and no such customer or patron shall be served more than two beer or wine beverages during the permitted hours of video gaming and retail sale of beer or wine during any one calendar day. It is intended that the service of beer and wine is ancillary to the operation of a gas station or convenience store that holds a valid video gaming license with the state and the county if applicable and shall not be advertised or otherwise held out to be a drinking establishment. The license holder shall not serve beer or wine to a patron without their age having been first verified. All beer or wine beverages shall be poured from their original containers into a clear container before serving to a patron. No cans or glass containers shall be allowed. Beer or wine service shall only be provided to patrons who are actively playing on video gaming terminals. Beer or wine beverages may not be removed from the designated gaming area at any time. No happy hour practices shall be allowed on the licensed premises. No patio, beer garden, or similar area is allowed on the licensed premises for alcohol consumption. The license holder shall adhere to the county's closing hours. No window or any other signage shall be permitted on the specified premises or surrounding property that indicates that alcoholic beverages are available for consumption at the specified premises. Establishments shall be subject to all building and zoning regulations, current adopted county, state and accessibility codes; including review and approval of site plans

Class F License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor and for the consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises of a golf clubhouse and on the golf course grounds, including from beverage carts in an establishment operated in conjunction with a golf course consisting of nine (9) or more holes or in conjunction with other seasonal recreational sites such as ski parks.

Class G License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of packaged alcoholic liquor on a seasonal basis, such as at a Farmer's Market. Class G licenses are only issued to Illinois licensed liquor retailers to transfer a portion of their alcoholic liquor inventory from their licensed premises to a designated site for a special event. A Class G Special Use Permit Liquor License must be (Class G Continued) obtained for each location and cannot exceed 15 days in duration. Class G Licenses shall be subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2-2-5-1 of the Rock Island County Liquor Control Ordinance.

Class H License: Shall authorize the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor on premises operated as a restaurant or other place for the service of food, and connected patio or deck areas confined as such, wherein the consumption of packaged goods is prohibited, and operated in connection with a resort/camp ground, provided that said resort/camp ground consists of twenty five (25) or more rental spaces, and shall further authorize the retail sale of alcoholic liquor in a separate establishment within the same resort/camp ground aforementioned wherein sales are made of unbroken or original package, commonly called "package stores".

Class I Catering License: Allows catering companies or restaurants, whether located within or outside of Rock Island County, to cater and serve and engage in the sale at retail of alcoholic beverages for sale and consumption at a specified private function located exclusively within Rock Island County only jurisdiction.

A. The fee for a Class I license shall be $200 per day (2-2-4-11). Events lasting for more than one (1) calendar day must obtain and pay for a new license for each day of the event.

B. Such license shall not be transferable from one license to another, except in conformance with the laws of this state.

C. The catering business must abide by all County of Rock Island liquor licensing requirements; prior to the issuance of an original or renewal Class I Catering License; the licensee must provide a copy of their State of Illinois Liquor License, and their State of Illinois seller's license.
